Blackjack Report

When making the blackjack game, I wanted the game to be very easy to understand and keep things organized. I had to make sure that every part of the game was functioning well and didn't interfere with other things like letting the decks handle all the card related things players handling their own cards, and the game class managing the flow of the game. By doing these things, the blackjack would run smoothly and would be very to understand and everyone could without being with confusing details